Ben – I will try and dig it up.

It is just the original LLC agreement we had to execute as an org doc to circulate to lenders, etc. At this point it is meaningless and just needs to be amended to reflect whatever the deal terms are.

Just don't want to give you the impression that we are currently working on a different version, there is just a placeholder version that currently exists that we will need to amend.

Paul –

Do you have the SEMF LLC that you can send over to me please.

Thanks,
Ben
